General Description

There is some very good farming land in this Township. the better land being on the North side of Elkhorn river, back near the foot of the Bluffs, that near the river being too sandy for agricultural purposes. The Bottom on the North side of the river will be affected but little by drouth, for the reason, that; many small streams issuing from the hills lose their individual identity upon reaching the Bottom, and spread out over the Bottom thus Naturally irrigating the Soil, There is a belt of very good timber along the Elkhorn and also some on the creeks that are tributary to it. The line of demarcation between timber and prairie along the river is not well defined. The belt is usually from two to four chains in breadth, consisting of the varieties of Elm and Cottonwood Ash Willow with an undergrowth of Willow Plum and Vines,
